

BORROWED TIME

Movement III Seize the day

Sunrise paints the sky so bright,
a brand-new chance, a golden light.
No chains to hold, no walls too high,
spread your wings, it's time to fly.

Life's phenomenal, hear it roar,
open every unlocked door.
No one's stopping you, break away,
you hold the power, seize the day.

Doubts may whisper, fears may call,
but strength will rise, you'll never fall.
Every step, a path unknown,
face the storm and claim your throne.

Life's phenomenal, hear it roar,
open every unlocked door.
No one's stopping you, break away,
you hold the power, seize the day.

The road is rough, but so are you,
through every storm, the sun shines through.
No regrets, just lessons learned,
feel the fire, watch it burn!

Dreams aren't distant, they are near,
chase them boldly, lose the fear.
Turn the stones into your throne,
you're unstoppable, carve your own.

Raise your voice, the world will hear,
no more limits, no more fear.
Take your moment, make it shine,
this phenomenal life is yours and mine!
